

LEADERSHIP DISEASE CHECKLIST A3. NAYOPENING

IMPACT - Risk Factors, Stages & Outcomes

What has already happened or might occur?

- You seldom hear directly about opportunities.
- New ideas are not brought to you very often.
- You are not asked to speak to groups or classes.
- Some people just give up trying to reach you.
- No one shares information about you because no one knows what it would be.
- People avoid or stay away from you.
- You become isolated and lonely.
- You are not invited to events.
- You are seen as not needing or seeking anything.
- People accept your non-verbal messages and quit trying to approach you.
- You get little opportunity to talk things over with others.
- People are not sure if you are a good speaker or storyteller because they have never talked with you.
- People think you are playing a game of “Look at me, I am busier than you.”
- No one is following you because you are so separated from everything.
- People think it is a waste of time to approach you.
- Your phone calls diminish significantly.
- Your reputation becomes “You think you are more important than the rest of us.”
- People interpret your behaviors as you are so strong you do not need anything.
- People may see you at the top and think you are stuck there or will remain there forever.
- People may see no reason to hitch their fortune to a star that is out of reach or dimming.
- People keep asking and seeking from you, but they become more frustrated and irritated.

NAYOPENING - IMPACT: Total Score: