IMPACT - Risk Factors, Stages & Outcomes

What has already happened or might occur?

- You fake it, quit, or drown.
- Your fear cripples your effectiveness.
- Less and less information and resources are available to you, decreasing your effectiveness.
- People see through your facade and react in negative ways.
- People lose confidence in you and will not follow your leadership.
- You suffer in silence and lose confidence.
- People avoid involving you in planning and decision making.
- People know you are hiding or avoiding your responsibilities.
- People view you as ineffective and ignore you.
- People talk about you behind your back and are damaging your reputation.
- You find a dead critter in your chair letting you know how others feel about your effectiveness.
- People are misjudging you, and you are not able to defend yourself.
- You fail and are ceremoniously dispatched or publicly humiliated.
- Due to your bad experience, a new opportunity appears, and you refuse it (even though you might be ready and capable now).
